REDUPORTAL CORRESPONDENCE.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19, 1856.

The Republican Convention has concluded its labors by nominating Wm. L. Dayton, of New Jersey, as its candidate for Vice Presifor nine years—from 1842 to 1851—and was l distinguished for his decided opposition,-manifested in a very able speech,—to the Omnibus Memures, and the Fugitive Slave Act. At that went with the friends of Freedom for the defense of Northern rights.

On the informal ballot, he received 259 votes, and was nominated on the first formal ballot. The enthusiasm in behalf of the ticket, is unbounded. The speeches, last night, at the National Hall, were fully up to high-water remark, that, whether they put Anti-Slavery isto the Platform or not, they would all take the disease the untural way, and be all broken out with it before the close of the campaign. | him.

The indications now are, that nothing can prevent the election of Fremont, if the friends of Freedom do their duty. S. M. B.

The Misrepresentations of the "Pinery."

The law, whether in Kansas or elsewhere, which should make it criminal to speak, write or print anything against Slavery, is regarded, "The dishonesty of the Republican cry in the North at least, as a very bad law. It against the Know Nothings, is a prominent feashould never have existed. But it is as much ture involved in the late maneuvers of the op-a law of the land, till changed, as any other, and position. A leading illustration of this is in Courts and Juries, citizens and strangers, are bound by it. This law has been in force for whose editor has been heading a fight against nearly two years, and yet no attempt is made to Know Nothings in this State, all the season; but in their power to apply a speedy and effectual and heists the name of Fremont, the Know remedy, by passing, in the House of Representatives, where they have the majority, a bill (F) is all right. We should like to know to disapprove and annul the obnoxious territorial law: why do they not do it? why, indeed, but that would restore quiet in Kansas. This is another gross misrepresentation, and the editor of the Pinery must presume very much upon the ignorance of biareaders, in making it; for every one, who reads sion of the Missouri ruffians and hence its onthe political newspapers of the day, knows that such a bill could not pass the Sonate, as three- doctrine of "popular soversignty" is fairly carfourthe of that body belong to the Slavery-Ex-tonsion party, and are in favor of enforcing the repudlated in their platform, and what is still and President Pierce, the Pinery-man's master, declares they shall be enforced. The Republicans of the House of Representatives have done all they could towards rendering these laws null. Though opposed by almost the entire democracy, they have sent a commission to Kansas to enquire into the legality of the election of the members of the Legislature which passed these obnoxious laws, and a report will soon be made; and if it is against its legality, the Pinery can rest assured that the Republicans members of the House will do all he addressed. N. M. MODERN, Milwanker, in their power to render those exactments nugatory

In the meantime, the editor of the Pinery can be more profitably employed in exhorting the democratic members of Congress, and the President, to mete out justice to the settlers in Kansas, than in indulging in misrepresentations in regard to that Territory and the action of the Republican party.
